Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Assalaamu ‘alaykum Wa Rahmatullah Wa Barakatuhoo

SubhanAllah, 2021 has ended leaving many of us to reflect about our inability to control either our present or our future. This past year has been another difficult year for the Ummah and for the mankind as a whole, however, it has offered us an opportunity to self-reflect and to analyze and realign ourselves with the sole purpose of our creation, and that is to worship Allah. There is no greater status than to be the ‘Abd of Allah’ and so we ask Allah to make us among His true servants, allow us to continue our efforts in conveying the message of Islam to others and to help improve the lives of those who need our help the most.

These past few years have once again reaffirmed our belief that ultimately, power, authority and strength lies alone with Allah. And so we submit ourselves towards His obedience and seek His Divine guidance to fulfill our role as His servants.

Let’s raise our hands together to ask for the forgiveness and eternal peace for our brothers and sisters who have passed away during these difficult times and we ask Allah to relieve mankind from this hardship, and to make us among those who take heed from these events and to improve ourselves.

ICNA is your organization, it’s impressive growth, and the efforts of its divisions in communities across this country are successful firstly by the blessings of Allah, and secondly by the trust and the support of the American Muslim community. So many of ICNA’s programs, including Community Services, Da’wah, Tarbiyah, Sisters Division, Revert Support, Youth Development and Social Justice programs are attended and supported by thousands and have been so vital to the Muslim Community in this country. Moreover, ICNA has played a vital role in keeping major Muslim organizations united and effective under the banner of US Council of Muslim Organizations (USCMO). Hence, your continued support is needed in these humble efforts to further our growth and success.

I want to especially invite you to join hands with us. ICNA is a versatile organization – whatever your interests are, and in whatever capacity you feel you can offer to our community – you will find ICNA to be a great bridge for you.

In spite of a pandemic and all the difficulties, with the blessings of Allah and the trust of our American Muslim community, ICNA’s work has progressed more than we could have ever expected.

Surely, with hardship there is also ease.

So surely, with hardship, there is also ease.

I want to end with the excellent news that the Annual ICNA Convention will be returning this year in person, in sha Allah. Once again, Allah has given us an opportunity to gather for His sake, and attend the largest convention for American Muslims. We are looking forward to ICNA’s 2022 Convention in Baltimore on May 28-30th – with the theme: “Building a Just Society – The Mission Continues”. Please visit www.icnaconvention.org for more details. Please mark your calendars and register yourself and your families if you have not yet done it!

The most fundamental teaching of Islam is to believe in the Oneness of God, in the sense of His being the only Creator, Preserver, Nourisher, etc. But this belief is not enough. Many of the idolaters knew and believed that only the Supreme God could do all this and yet they associated other gods with Him.
